

PHILHARMONIC TO GIVE CONCERT AT AUDITORIUM

Orchestra Is Under Direction of W. Henry Baker, Conductor.

MISS KIRKWOOD AT PIANO

Miss Lucille Cullingworth, Soprano, and Mrs. R. S. Hudgins, Contralto, Have Solo Parts—Striking Program Has Been Arranged.

For its concert to be given in the City Auditorium on Thursday, April 20, the Richmond Philharmonic Association has arranged one of the most interesting programs ever offered by that organization. The orchestra, under the direction of W. Henry Baker, its conductor, will be assisted by Miss Anita Kirkwood, the brilliant young pianist who is not only the accompanist of the orchestra, but one of the most talented and accomplished soloists in this section, and by Mrs. Lucille Cullingworth, soprano, and Mrs. R. S. Hudgins, contralto.

Neither Miss Cullingworth nor Mrs. Hudgins has appeared with the Philharmonic before, though both are well known as singers, particularly among the church people. Miss Cullingworth has been organist soloist of St. James Church Choir for several seasons, and Mrs. Hudgins has been organist of the First Baptist Church choir for several years.

GUARD OF COMMONWEALTH HOLDS ANNUAL MEETING

Veterans of Famous Military Command Tell Old Stories of Life in the Seventies.

The Guard of the Commonwealth Association held its annual meeting on April 12 at the Grand Army. This was the forty-fifth meeting of this time-honored organization, as it dates from April 12, 1871, and these veterans are composed of many prominent citizens. Reminiscences were indulged in and the spirit of the seventies revived. The president wore the elaborate gold medal won by the Company, Guard of the Commonwealth, in October, 1871, offered by the old Dispatch Company for the best drilled company against all comers. Fourteen companies competed on this occasion, representing five Southern States and the honor was conferred upon this command. It was proposed that a full history of the company be written, which has already partially been done, and be deposited in the archives of the State capital with the photographs, which have been carefully preserved this work will be completed within the next two years. After the business meeting the association marched to Murphy's Hotel where a banquet was held.

Burial Sale.
A rummage sale for the benefit of the Relief for the Sick will be held at 1911 East Main Street April 20, 21 and 22.

Philharmonic Soloist

MISS ANITA KIRKWOOD.

Miss Kirkwood will play a Grieg piano concerto with the Richmond Philharmonic Orchestra at its next concert, April 20.

PAGEANT PLANS ARE RAPIDLY TAKING SHAPE

Costumers and Dancing Teachers Are Busy at Work on Preparations for Spectacle.

With the production of the Shakespeare Pageant but three weeks distant, the executive committee is already putting on the finishing touches and expects to have the spectacle staged on time, and with the least friction possible. Redoubled efforts in the different lines of the work will secure the desired results, is the hope.

Several experts from New York City, who have considerable experience in producing pageants, and outdoor spectacles, have arrived and are already at work. Mrs. R. D. French, a costumer from New York, who had charge of the designing and making of the 3,000 costumes worn at the Brooklyn Shakespeare Pageant last year, will assist Mrs. Edna Tutwiler in costuming the participants in the outdoor celebration at Westhampton. Mrs. French is at present at Richmond College, where she is directing the making of the costumes to be worn by the college students.

Gilbert Blackman Rose, an architect and artist, who thoroughly understands the arrangement of background and settings for outdoor celebrations, is here. He staged two of the spring outdoor festivities at the University of California, while a student there, and has also worked with Percy Mackaye, who is directing the New York celebration of the tercentenary of the great poet-dramatist's death.

Miss Elizabeth Gardner has been engaged by the dance committee, of which Mrs. Thomas C. Gordon is chairman, to coach the court and country dancers. Miss Gardner is a graduate of the Chaff School of Dancing in New York City. She spent several years working on the Elizabethan dances, and has successfully worked them out that she is an authority on the dances of the period.

BETTER THAN SPANKING

Spanking does not cure children of bed-wetting. There is a constitutional cause for this trouble. Mrs. M. Summers, Box W, Notre Dame, Ind., will send free to any mother her successful home treatment, with full instructions. Send no money, but write her today if your children trouble you in this way. Don't blame the child, the chances are it can't help it. This treatment also cures adults and aged people troubled with urine difficulties by day or night.
